Destination XL Group, Inc. Files Preliminary Proxy Statement With Respect to FullBeauty Merger

Encourages Stockholders to Read Updated Board Recommendation on Pending Merger with FullBeauty Brands

CANTON, Mass., July 20, 2026 — Destination XL Group, Inc. (“DXL”) (NASDAQ: DXLG), the leading integrated commerce retailer of Big + Tall men’s clothing and shoes, today announced that it has filed its preliminary proxy statement with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) in connection with its previously announced transaction with FBB Holdings I, Inc. (“FullBeauty”).

As described in the preliminary proxy statement, the DXL Board of Directors (“DXL Board”) has continued to evaluate the merger, including in light of developments since the execution of the merger agreement with FullBeauty. As part of that evaluation, the DXL Board has considered, among other things, the increasingly challenging consumer environment since the execution of the merger agreement in December 2025, FullBeauty’s level of indebtedness, concerns regarding FullBeauty’s potential negative equity value, and the substantial economic dilution that DXL stockholders would experience if the merger were consummated on its current terms. Based on this evaluation, including these considerations, the DXL Board has determined that the merger and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the issuance proposal, are no longer advisable and are not in the best interests of DXL and its stockholders.

The DXL Board encourages stockholders to read the preliminary proxy statement carefully and in its entirety and urges stockholders to carefully consider the DXL Board’s recommendation that stockholders vote “AGAINST” the issuance proposal. The preliminary proxy statement can be found on DXL’s investor relations website at investor.dxl.com or the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov. DXL’s definitive proxy materials will be mailed in the coming weeks to all stockholders eligible to vote at the Special Meeting.
