Destination XL Group, Inc. Announces Holiday Sales Results; Announces Launch of Wholesale Division

CANTON, MA -- Destination XL Group, Inc. (NASDAQ:DXLG), the largest omni-channel specialty retailer of big and tall men's apparel, today announced that total sales for the 9-weeks ended January 5, 2019 increased 1.4% to $102.7 million as compared to $101.3 million for the 9-weeks ended December 30, 2017. Comparable sales increased 3.6% for the 9-weeks ended January 5, 2019 compared to the 9-weeks ended January 6, 2018. The increase in comparable sales was partially offset by a decrease of $1.6 million from the shift in calendar weeks due to the 53rd week in fiscal 2017. Based on the holiday sales results and expectations for the remainder of the fourth quarter, the Company is reiterating its full-year guidance as previously disclosed.

David Levin, Acting CEO, commented, "We are pleased to report that our sales results for the critical holiday selling season were in line with our expectations. We experienced strong sales increases in both our store and direct channels as our customers continue to respond favorably to our merchandise assortment and marketing programs."

As part of its strategic growth plan, today the Company is also announcing that it has launched a wholesale business unit focused on product development and distribution relationships with key retailers. As a result of this new model, the Company intends to develop and distribute both private label and co-branded men's big and tall apparel lines.

"DXL Men's Apparel is the industry leader in the men's big and tall apparel and accessories market. We believe there is an opportunity to bring our big and tall expertise in comfort, fit and style to leading apparel retailers who recognize the growth potential of this dynamic market niche. This model will allow DXL to leverage its extensive big and tall experience and industry knowledge with its current product development infrastructure, affording a broader market reach, including new distribution channels and increased brand awareness beyond the current DXL footprint," Levin concluded.

As part of this initiative, the Company is pleased to announce that it has been selected as the provider of men's big and tall sizes for the Amazon Private Brand, Amazon Essentials, which is now available for customers on Amazon.com/AmazonEssentials/BigandTall. In particular, the Company will provide a range of styles in sizes 2XL and above with branding that communicates "Amazon Essentials Fit by DXL."

The Company plans to report its actual fourth-quarter and fiscal 2018 financial results on March 22, 2019, when management also will conduct its quarterly conference call to discuss its results for fiscal 2018, as well as its fiscal 2019 outlook.

GAAP TO NON-GAAP NET LOSS TO ADJUSTED EBITDA

- The Company uses non-GAAP financial measures, such as "Adjusted EBITDA," "Free Cash Flow," "Free Cash Flow before DXL Capital Expenditures," "Adjusted net income (loss)" and "Adjusted net income (loss) per diluted share" in assessing its operating performance. The Company believes that these non-GAAP measures serve as an appropriate measure to be used in evaluating the performance of its business. The Company defines adjusted EBITDA as Earnings before interest, taxes and depreciation and amortization before restructuring charges, asset impairment charges and CEO transition costs. Free cash flow is defined as cash flow from operating activities less capital expenditures. Adjusted net income (loss) and Adjusted net income (loss) per diluted share are calculated assuming a normalized tax rate of 26% and are before restructuring charges, asset impairment charges and CEO transition costs.
